

The mission of the Northwind Arts Alliance is to connect the Arts and the Community through a full spectrum of activities. These activities take place both at the Northwind Arts Center and throughout the community. We also work together with other local organizations to help maintain the quality of arts involvement in our area through cooperative local events.

Northwind Arts Alliance sponsors educational lectures, coffee talks, poetry and play readings by local and visiting authors, visual art workshops and the juried shows at Northwind Arts Center. Students from Port Townsend and Chimacum schools visit the Northwind Arts Center to view special exhibits and to meet the artists. In addition, the Northwind Arts Alliance sponsors the annual Festival of children's Art and the summer Art Camp for Children. Northwind Arts Alliance also sponsors Arts to Elders, a program taught by local professionals that brings the arts and humanities to senior residence facilities. Plus, for ten years, Northwind Arts Alliance has sponsored Art Port Townsend, a month long event showcasing artists in our community. With studio tours, a juried art show, and poetry events, this event will celebrate its tenth year in 2008.

The Northwind Arts Center, located at 2409 Jefferson Street in Port Townsend, is the venue where many of our activities take place. We showcase both regional and local artists chosen by professional curators. This enables our community to view diverse art here at home on an artistic level most often seen only in an urban setting.

Northwind could not provide these activities without your help. Join our many generous donors and wonderful volunteers in giving your tax-deductible gift today. Thank you for your continuing support.
